

From European to Global Orders: International Law and Normativity in Context — Challenging Narratives

28 - 29 November 2016

Venue: Institut für die Wissenschaften vom Menschen (IWM), Spittelauer Lände 3, 1090 Vienna

Conference Program

Monday, 28 November 2016

15:30-16:00

Coffee Break

12:00	Lunch
13:15-13:30	Opening words
	Shalini Randeria , Rector, IWM; Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies (Geneva):
	Law and Justice in a Global Perspective
13:30 – 15:30	Session I: Discontinuity, Deviance, and Othering in International Law
Introductions:	Sebastian Spitra , University of Vienna: Administering Culture in International Law 1874 – 1933
	Matthew Craven , SOAS, University of London: The Time of Transition: Temporality in Narratives of the Expansion / Contraction of International Law
	Maria Adele Carrai, NYU Law: A History of International Law and China's Search for a Modernity of its own'

16:00 – 17:30 Session II: Methods For Constructing and Deconstructing Histories of

International Law

Introductions: Natasha Wheatley, University of Sydney:

On the Social History of International Law: Personhood in Motion

Paul Hahnenkamp, University of Vienna:

Denying and defending International Law in the 19th Century: Constructing the Discipline from a negative Perspective

Janne Nijman, T.M.C. Asser Instituut (The Hague); University of Amsterdam:

From Mistrust to Trust in the Anthropology of International Law: Going back

beyond Hobbes with Paul Ricoeur

19:00 Conference dinner

Tuesday, 29 November 2016

8:45 Welcome Coffee

9:00-10:30 Session III: A New Pluralism? Sources of Normativity

Introductions: Christina Binder, University of Vienna:

Law making by International Tribunals as new Source of Normativity?

Jakob Zollmann, WZB Berlin Social Science Center:

'Unsere einzige Waffe': Germany's Use of International Arbitration after 1919 to repel Reparation Payments

Marcus Payk, Humboldt-Universität Berlin:

The Universalization of International Law and its Contexts: A Historian's

Perspective on the Paris Peace Settlement 1919/20

10:30-11:00 Coffee Break

11:00-12:30 Session IV: The Narrative of Progress, Scienticisation, and Institutionalization in

International Law

Introductions: Stephan Wendehorst, University of Vienna/ University of Gießen:

What was really special about the Ius Publicum Europaeum? The Relationship between the Ius Publicum Europaeum and the Law of Nations reconsidered

Koen Stapelbroek, Erasmus University Rotterdam/ Helsinki:

The 'Constitution' of commercial Society in the 19th Century: The normative

Content of the new Global Economic Order

Mark A. Lewis, City University of New York/ Vienna Wiesenthal Institute for

Holocaust Research:

The role of international organizations in the construction of international criminal law from 1919-50

12:30-14:00 Lunch

14:00 – 15:30 Session V: Colonialism, Nation, and Empires Between Ancien Régime and Modernity

Introductions: Michel Erpelding, Max Planck Institute Luxembourg for International,

European and Regulatory Procedural Law:

Evidence requirements before 19th century anti-slave trade jurisdictions and slavery as a standard of treatment

Luigi Nuzzo, University of Salento (Lecce):

Rethinking Eurocentrism. European Legal Legacy and Western Colonialism

Stefan Kroll, Goethe-University Frankfurt/ Cluster of Excellence:

Public-Private Colonialism: Political Authority and judicial Decision-Making in the Shanghai International Settlement

15:30-16:00 Coffee Break

16:00 – 17:30 Session VI: Future Quests: Which Sources Do We Need For Which Discourses?

Introductions: Miloš Vec, University of Vienna/ IWM:

Which Narratives for which Histories? Revisiting Positivism, Universalisation and Juridification in 19th and 20th Century

International Law

17:30 End of Conference: Concluding Discussion

19:00 Farewell Dinner (optional)

Generously funded by the

